COOKIES

To make this site work properly, we sometimes place small data files called cookies on your device. Most big websites do this too.

WHAT ARE COOKIES?

A cookie is a small text file that a website saves on your computer or mobile device when you visit the site. It enables the website to remember your actions and preferences (such as login, language, font size and other display preferences) over a period of time, so you don't have to keep re-entering them whenever you come back to the site or browse from one page to another.

HOW DO WE USE COOKIES?

1. Security – we use cookies to enable and support our security features, and to help us detect malicious activity.
2. Preferences, features, and services – cookies can tell us which language you prefer and what your communications preferences are.

3. Performance, analytics and research – cookies help us learn how well our site performs in different locations. We also use cookies to understand, improve, and research products, features, and services, including when you access our website from other applications, or devices such as your work computer or your mobile device.

HOW TO CONTROL COOKIES

You can control and/or delete cookies as you wish – for details, see aboutcookies.org. You can delete all cookies that are already on your computer and you can set most browsers to prevent them from being placed. If you do this, however, you may have to manually adjust some preferences every time you visit a site and some services and functionalities may not work.

USES MADE OF THE INFORMATION

We use information held about you in the following ways:

1. Information you give to us. We will use this information:
 - a. To carry out our obligations arising from any contracts entered into between us and to provide you with the information, products and services that you request from us;
 - b. To notify you about changes to our service;
 - c. To ensure that content from our site is presented in the most effective manner for you and for your computer.
2. Information we collect about you. We will use this information:
 - a. To administer our site and for internal operations, including troubleshooting, data analysis, testing, research, statistical and survey purposes;
 - b. To improve our site to ensure that content is presented in the most effective manner for you and for your computer;
 - c. To allow you to participate in interactive features of our service, when you choose to do so;
 - d. As part of our efforts to keep our site safe and secure;
3. Information we receive from other sources. We will combine this information with information you give to us and information we collect about you and (depending on the types of information we receive) use it as described above.

DISCLOSURE OF YOUR INFORMATION

You agree that we have the right to share your personal information with:

1. Any member of our group, which means our subsidiaries.
2. Selected third parties including:
 - a. Business partners, suppliers and sub-contractors for the performance of any contract we enter into with them or you;

8. To ensure that the underlying network that will be developed pursuant to the Token Sale and/ or on which the Tokens are intended to be usable has sufficient and relevant information in order to support you and your use of the Tokens.
9. In order to provide relevant information to regulators, government agencies and banks that may request information on the Token Sale.

WHERE WE STORE YOUR PERSONAL DATA

All information you provide to us is stored on our secure servers.

The data that we collect from you may be transferred to, and stored at, a destination outside the European Economic Area (EEA). It may be processed by staff operating outside the EEA who works for us or for one of our suppliers. This includes staff engaged in, among other things, the fulfilment of your order, the processing of your payment details and the provision of support services. By submitting your personal data, you agree to this transfer, storing or processing. We will take all steps reasonably necessary to ensure that your data is treated securely and in accordance with this policy.

Unfortunately, the transmission of information via the Internet is not completely secure. Although we will do our best to protect your personal data, we cannot guarantee the security of your data transmitted to our site; any transmission is at your own risk. Once we have received your information, we will use strict procedures and security features to try to prevent unauthorized access.

YOUR RIGHTS

You have the right to ask us not to process your personal data for marketing purposes. You can exercise the right at any time by contacting us at compliance@fabrictoken.io. Our site may, from time to time, contain links to and from the websites of our partner networks, advertisers and affiliates. If you follow a link to any of these websites, please note that these websites have their own privacy policies and that we do not accept any responsibility or liability for these policies. Please check these policies before you submit any personal data to these websites.

CHANGES TO OUR PRIVACY POLICY

Any changes we make to our privacy policy in the future will be posted on this document and, where appropriate, notified to you by e-mail. Please check back frequently to see any updates or changes to our privacy policy.
